NICOLAS FEUILLATTE 225 MILLESIME 1997

The new Nicolas Feuillatte cuvée was named after the oak barrels in which it was fermented. It is composed of 50% chardonnay, for its elegance and finesse, and 50% pinot noir, for its roundness and structure.

Nicolas Feuillatte 225: explore new flavours

Colour: extraordinarily clear, with mischievous foam, an elegant cord of bubbles punctuated by superb effervescence adds shine to its golden yellow color.

Nose: generous and powerful, revealing remarkable complexity. The initial candied fruit notes lead into deep, noble fragrances that marry undergrowth notes with discreet, slightly stewed spice, vanilla, and hazelnut aromas.

Palate: vivacity and a long finish. The palate is stimulated by the generosity of the vintage, which is warm with great finesse and complexity. Green apple notes. Utmost freshness and evident lightness leave the palate intact.

Serve at 8-10 °C.

75 CL

This wine is the ideal match for a “Sweetbread Suprême with Morels”. The chardonnay will highlight this dish’s finesse with elegance, while the pinot noir will reinforce the morels’ strength.

To put this rare cuvée in its best light, it is presented in a case steeped in warm, contemporary colours. The case’s sobriety is shaken up by an original, staircase-shaped opening that reveals a glimpse of the bottle.

Cellar Master’s comments:

“1997 WAS A YEAR FILLED WITH EXTREMES: WINTER AND SPRING FROST FOLLOWED BY A HOT, DRY SUMMER. THANKFULLY, THE FABULOUS SEPTEMBER WEATHER PROVIDED THE PERFECT HARVEST CONDITIONS TO CREATE AN EXCEPTIONAL VINTAGE.”
